Did you know Huntsville Utilities adds the smell of rotten eggs, an odorant called Captan, so you can smell gas leaks?

If you smell rotten eggs and suspect a gas leak, you should:

- ✓ Open a window or door and ventilate the area (only if you can do so without creating a spark.)
 - ✓ Leave the building.
 - ✓ Do not light matches or operate any equipment including electrical switches, light switches or on/off switches. These can cause a spark.
 - ✓ Use a neighbor's phone to call the Natural Gas Department to report a natural gas leak at 256-53-LIGHT (256-535-4448) or call 9-1-1.
